

On June 23rd 2010 the Fulbright Foundation of Greece announced that Erasmia Evangelia Chasioti (Athens College Geniko Lykeio '2004) was awarded one of the seventeen Fulbright Scholarships for Greek graduate students, for studies in the United States during the 2010/11 academic year. Ms. Chasioti, a graduate of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, will study law at Columbia University in New York City. Graduates of Athens College and Psychico College are regularly honored by the Fulbright Foundation with scholarships for post-graduate studies in America.