A leprechaun is an Irish "elf". Leprechauns are small in size, and some say they look like a tiny, old man in a top hat with red beard. They are deceiving fellows and like to play tricks on vulnerable people.

Each Leprechaun also has a pot of gold! Some say they bury it in secret places only Leprechauns can reach; others say they hide it at the end of the rainbow. One thing is for sure though, if you catch a Leprechaun he will lead you to his pot of gold and give it to you as a bribe to let him go...

What did you use to lure the leprechaun into your trap?

I used some shamrocks and a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. I also used bushes because they're green and leprechauns like green. I wrote "Free Gold" on the trap.

What will you ask for in order to set the leprechaun free?

I will ask him to bring good luck to everybody.

Leda Tsakiraki

I used some gold, lots of green things and shamrocks and a rainbow to lure the leprechaun into my trap.

Nicolina Sakelliou

I'll say: "Leprechaun, every time you find some money, give it to people who need it", and then I'll set it free.

Irene Stivakta

I used a pot of golden coins to lure the leprechaun into my trap.

George Zanglis

I made a trap to catch a leprechaun. Leprechauns are Irish elves. They've got red beards. They're tiny creatures. They wear green clothes.

Marina Karaitidi

I used three shamrocks and a pot of gold to lure the leprechaun into my trap. The pot is full of golden coins. I used a four-leaf clover, a rainbow and a "Free Gold" sign. That's all!

May you always have work for your hands to do.

May your pockets hold always a coin or two.

May the sun shine bright on your windowpane.

May the rainbow be certain to follow each rain.

May the hand of a friend always be near you.

And may God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.
